| Name:   | Statistics  |
|---|---|
| Date:   | Practice Quiz 1-B   |
| a) How old are you? (Sample answers: 5, 10, 18, 25)   | e following survey questions based on the sample answers given.   |
| b) What size shirt do you wear? (Sample answers: S, M, L,   | XL)   |
| The level of measurement is It  | is not interval because   |
| c) How fast can you run a mile? (Sample answers: 4:30, 6The level of measurement is ratio because | :15, 7:00, 8:00)  |
| d) What time do you usually get up on weekdays? (Samp   | le answers: 4:30, 6:15, 7:00, 8:00)   |
| The level of measurement is It  | is not ratio because  |
| e) What is the best coffee shop in Scotts Valley? (Sample   | answers: Coffee Cat, Peet's, Starbucks, Cafe Cruz)  |
| The level of measurement is It  | is not ordinal because  |
| f) How many hours of exercise do you get each weekend The level of measurement is ratio because       | on average? (Sample answers: 0, ½, 1, 4)  |
|   | ers: senior parking top, senior parking bottom, general parking top, don't park at school) is not ordinal because   |
| h) If you and three friends were in a Haunted House tour The level of measurement is It               | group, where would you want to be in the group? (Sample answers: first, second, third, fourth) is not interval because  |
| participant the same picture, either printe   | r details of a picture better when they see a printout of it than when they see it on a screen. She shows each d or online, and then she measures how well they remember the details.  variable. Make your operational definition precise and detailed enough that two different experimenters would get the same results if they |

b) Write, word-for-word, the directions you would provide participants.